Dear Sigman Upsilon,

Did you know that with your gift of $883.00, you are helping people living with lupus today and funding the research that will lead to more effective treatments?

Your gift will support educational resources like the National Resource Center on Lupus, the world's largest and most trusted online information source for all things lupus—and fund cutting-edge research into both the diagnosis and treatment of lupus, including the nation's premiere pediatric lupus research program, the Michael Jon Barlin Pediatric program. You can learn more about these programs you make possible here:

Thank you for making people with lupus your priority.

With gratitude,

Leigh Ann Cardenas
